

MBT Short Bio

Merlin B. Thompson (PhD, MA, BMus) is one of Canada's leading authorities on music studio teaching. He is author of More than Music Lessons: A Studio Teacher's Guide to Parents, Practicing, Projects, and Character and Fundamentals of Piano Pedagogy: Fuelling Authentic Student Musicians from the Beginning. He is founder of Music Teacher Professional Development and creator of the webinar Idea of the Month. His podcast series The Music Educator's Crucible and video series Fundamental Piano Technique are available through his website merlinthompson.com.

Merlin has worked with hundreds of children, their parents, and teachers in workshops, institutes, conferences, established programs and mentorships online and in-person across Canada, USA, Australia, New Zealand, Brazil, Great Britain, Spain, and Japan.

In 2017, Merlin was awarded Article of the Year by the American Music Teacher journal of the MTNA. He is an active music education scholar whose works have been published in numerous international and academic journals including American Music Teacher, American Suzuki Journal, Educational Theory, Journal of School Choice, Philosophy of Music Education Review, and Studies in Philosophy and Education.